

OFFICIAL MEDIA KIT

ZED WONDEMU

AUTHOR

ENTREPRENEUR

SPEAKER

COMMUNITY LEADER

“When justice is tilted, courage becomes our greatest witness.”

About Zed Wondemu

Ethiopian-American entrepreneur, author, and civic voice whose work spans hospitality, mentorship, and public advocacy — building bridges between community, culture, and justice.

Founder

Founder of Zed's Ethiopian Restaurant

Mentor

Community leader and mentor

Author

Author of Slanted Justice

Advocate

Advocate for resilience, integrity, and justice

FEATURED BOOK

Slanted Justice

Part memoir, part social commentary.

THEMES

- Immigration
- Justice
- Resilience
- Entrepreneurship
- Faith
- Hope

On Air & In Conversation

The T.R.O.N. Podcast

Helen Mesfin Interview

Derje Studio Interview

Surafel Interview

Sheger FM 102.1

A Track Record of Leadership

Award-winning restaurateur

Former Chairman, Restaurant Association of Metropolitan Washington

Currently: President of Zeds Consulting Services

Author of Slanted Justice

National Restaurant Association leadership

Community philanthropist

International business consultant

What Zed Speaks On

01

The American Dream

02

Women in Leadership

03

Entrepreneurship

04

Ethics & Leadership

05

Resilience During Crisis

06

Diversity & Opportunity

About Zed

“

An inspiring example of resilience, determination, and grace.

“

A remarkable entrepreneur whose story transcends culture and borders.

“

Her courage gives a voice to countless immigrants.

“

An unforgettable story of perseverance.

“

Zed reminds us that integrity is the foundation of lasting success.

MEDIA CONTACT

Zed Wondemu

Author of Slanted Justice

EMAIL

zedwondemu@gmail.com

PHONE

202-669-7808

Available for TV, radio, podcasts, book festivals, universities, conferences, and keynote speeches.